

Levels of Community as a Small Group

Level 1

A group of people who are just studying the Bible together.

Level 2

A group of people that care about each other & in the event of some difficulty or calamity (death, divorce, financial fallout, etc.) they would be there for each other.

Level 3

A group of people who are removing their masks and opening up more and more about what's really happening in their lives.

Level 4

A group of people at a Brother's Keeper level = Recognizing their need to really depend on each other to thrive spiritually (loving, encouraging, holding accountable, confessing, speaking into each other's lives) = COMMUNITY!

Level 5

A group of people not only living in community, but effectively reaching out to reach lost people together.
